

IN OGDEN'S SOCIETY CIRCLES

AWAY FOR A FEW WEEKS IS NOW THE SLOGAN OF OGDEN SOCIETY

Among the rest seekers from here and those who are motoring northward are Mrs. Archie Bigelow, Mrs. W. H. Shearman and Mrs. E. F. Bratz. They left Monday last for a trip through Idaho, the Jackson's Hole country and Yellowstone park.

A jolly party that spent ten days in the Yellowstone park returned the early part of the week, included Dr. C. B. Johnson, Carl Lindquist, G. L. Chadwick and Miss Florabel Taylor, Miss Arline Parry and Miss Josephine Johnson.

Mrs. A. C. Abbott of Jefferson avenue is in Salt Lake where she is the guest of friends.

Mr. James Ingebretson motored up from the capital Sunday with a party of Salt Lakers and they together enjoyed a day's outing in the canyon.

Mr. and Mrs. Amon Moore and little daughter, who have resided in Ogden during the past summer, contemplate leaving soon for California. Though Mrs. Moore will first pay a visit of two weeks in the capital city.

Mary and Myrene, the younger daughters of Dr. and Mrs. Edward I. Rich are in Salt Lake on a visit to their sister, Mrs. George Oscar Russell.

Miss Agnes Mullerup is spending the week in Idaho Falls with relatives.

On Wednesday evening and after spending a pleasant six weeks visit with her sisters at the Virginia, Mrs. J. C. Armstrong left for her Los Angeles home.

Mr. and Mrs. James R. Cooper have gone to the coast for a month or more. Enroute to San Francisco they will visit the beautiful Lake Tahoe region in the high Sierras.

Mr. Squire Coop left Tuesday for a journey covering several weeks in California.

Mr. George P. McCabe returned the early part of the week from a two weeks' visit in Atlantic City. He joined his family in the canyon where they are spending the summer.

Canyon parties have been especially popular on the warm days of August and many have entertained during the past week. At Wildwood camp and at her cottage Linzer Longer, Mrs. C. A. Hume was hostess on Wednesday at a four o'clock tea, given in compliment to the ladies of the Macca-bees. Following the afternoon pleasures, the group spent the evening in dancing at the Hermitage grove.

Recent arrivals at Wildwood are Mr. and Mrs. George Watson and little daughter, Helen, who are occupying one of the attractive camps. Mr. and Mrs. Ned D. Groff are also there for a stay of several weeks.

Mr. John C. Fowler and his daughter, Mrs. Nettie Paine, are occupying the attractive "Only Cottage" at Wildwood.

A group of charming "Bee Hive" girls of the Seventh ward are being chaperoned by Mrs. Jennie Budge and Mrs. Emma Rowlevin. They are at Wildwood for a time and they have as their guest, Miss Hoffman of Salt Lake City.

Miss Francis Jennings who, with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Jennings, of Salt Lake, are spending the summer near Idlewild, called together a few girls one day this week to meet two friends, Miss Ruth Farnsworth and Miss Margaret Gowans, who are up from Salt Lake on a visit at the Jennings' cottage. The afternoon was a charming one, among the rocks and hills of the canyon, and was enjoyed by including the guests of honor, the Misses Mary Hurst, Rose Mosteller, Jessie Beeson, Nell Driggs, Edith Powell and Mary Hurst.

Mrs. Joel Harris entertained her sewing club at her canyon cottage on Wednesday afternoon when nearly 20 members were present. The club meets every fortnight and on Aug. 22, the club will be entertained by Mrs. Arthur Halverson, 828 Twenty-sixth street.

To celebrate the fourth birthday of her little daughter, Mrs. F. L. Sloan-skey gave a pretty outdoor party in the canyon Wednesday afternoon.

Among some of the Ogdensites who motored to Bear Lake this past week are Mr. and Mrs. Will Wright and their daughter, Margaret and two sons, Kenneth and Julian.

TRIP TO COAST
Mr. and Mrs. Heber Scowcroft accompanied by their son, John, left Thursday for San Francisco. They will be away two weeks and will visit some of California's popular resorts before returning home.

AT THE HERMITAGE
Up at the Hermitage just now are many out of Utah guests, who have found their way to this beauty spot from many distant parts. Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Middlforth of Chicago arrived yesterday. Mr. and Mrs. John L. Sherwood are there from Geneva, Ill. Mary E. Shover of Terre Haute, Ind., and Mr. D. Arthur of Menicee, Ind., are also guests at the Hermitage, while from Los Angeles are Mr. and Mrs. McCarthy and son and Dr. F. G. Riff. Jeanette Hogan came up from Salt Lake for a few days and will spend them in the canyon resort.

JOINT SESSION ENTERTAINMENT
Gertrude and Arlene Allen entertained at a joint session of the Columbia and Pollyanna bee-hive swarms Thursday evening. The decorations were tiger lilies and gladioli. Reports were read and the work was planned for the coming month. The Pollyanna swarm meets at Zelta Ballinger's home next week and the Columbia swarm at the home of Mary Ensign. Those who enjoyed the evening at the Allan home were:

Columbia members: Arlene Allen, Mary Ensign, Melba Ogden, Elenora Emmett, Gladys Purdy, Rose Ellis, Mary Ellis, Irma Duxey, bee keeper, and Lucile Fougler. Pollyanna members: Gertrude Allen, Vera Jones, Doris Goodkey, Minnie Jones, Ruth Osborn, Marie Emmett, Marion Pierce, Zelta Ballinger, beekeeper; Lorna Jenkins.

FAREWELL DANCING PARTY AT BERTHANA

By far the most elaborate affair of the week was the dancing party on Monday night given in honor of Sergeant Jack Eccles by his mother, Mrs. Bertha Eccles, at the Berthana. The spacious hall, with its surrounding rooms, was artistic in patriotic colors, and Old Glory waved over the happy throng gathered there to bid a God-speed and auf wiedersehen to the stalwart young man who goes forth to do his country's duty. In the receiving line were Mrs. Bertha Eccles, her sons, D. C. and Jack, and her four daughters, Miss Veda, Miss Lila, Miss Vivian and Mrs. W. Arthur Wright. Mrs. Eccles, on the arm of Colonel Richard Young, followed by Mayor and Mrs. Abbot R. Heywood, led the grand march, which was the signal for a good time, and the younger set more especially danced away the hours all too short before the good-byes were said.

There were many prominent out-of-town guests beside Colonel Richard W. Young and his adjutant, Captain Guthrie. A number of other officers in the Utah national guard were present and battery B, in which Jack is an officer, was well represented. About 500 guests came to do honor to Mrs. Eccles and her son and the affair will live long as a pleasant memory in the hearts of those present.

LADIES DELIGHTFULLY ENTERTAINED
The Women's club-auxiliary to the Railway Mail service, was delightfully entertained recently by Mrs. R. Mills and Mrs. C. Pyle at the former's home on Seventh street, when twenty-two members spent a most delightful afternoon. The decorations were unusually attractive in yellow and white, the club colors. Refreshments were dainty and enjoyed by the twenty-two members present. Mrs. Bright and Mrs. E. West, of Oakland, Cal., were the club's guests for the afternoon.

MISS LANGLOIS TO LEAVE
Miss Gladys Edith Langlois, a most accomplished pupil of Miss Minnie Brown and who has been spending the summer in Ogden for the purpose of studying dramatic art, leaves Monday good cheer and good wishes foretold the coming happy event.

Miss Ella O'Neill, whose marriage to Roland B. Ballantyne was recently announced, presided today at a very interesting tea at her home on Jefferson avenue. It was a trousseau tea, and about fifty of Miss O'Neill's close friends were there to enjoy a glimpse of the pretty things made ready for the wedding, which is to occur on Tuesday evening, August 14.

The O'Neill home was redolent with sweet peas and the tea table was attractive in pink and green. Members of the family presided at the urn.

On Friday afternoon Mrs. Paul Morrissey entertained at a Kensington for Miss Ella O'Neill. Many friends enjoyed the afternoon with this young matron and her guest of honor.

A JOLLY SENDOFF.
On Thursday, Aug. 2, Miss Mary Read, president of the A. Q. M. club, assisted by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Read, entertained in a delightful manner the members of the A. Q. M. club and their friends at her beautiful home in Ogden canyon, in honor of Mr. Raymond Terry, who had formerly volunteered his services to the hospital corps of the United States army, and who was to report for duty at Fort Douglas on the Saturday following. Until a late hour in the evening the party engaged in dancing at the Hermitage, when they returned to the home of Miss Read where a bounteous luncheon was awaiting them, after which the merry makers were whirled to their homes in automobiles. It was a jolly, hilarious crowd bent on giving to a deserving friend a sendoff such as he will long remember.

The members of the A. Q. M. club present were: Marie Read, Gwen Cantwell, Marguerite Norton, Myrtle Cantwell, Sarah Jones, LaRene Kerr, Mrs. Maud Raby, Lillie Osburn and Miss Terry. Charming Ogden Girl Becomes Bride of A. Bruce Hamilton On August Eighth

Vibrant with the exquisite sunset and the effect of the aurora borealis or Ogden's skies last Wednesday evening, were the brilliant and varicolored electric lights combined with picturesque Japanese lanterns and effective parasols prettily arranged from the trees about the lawn of the J. D. Harris home, 2858 Grant avenue, where an interesting wedding occurred.

Miss Opal Vilate Wiggins, charming daughter of Mrs. J. D. Harris, and A. Bruce Hamilton, son of Mrs. Sadie Devlin, were married, the ceremony being performed by Bishop Nathan A. Tanner.

About 7:30 o'clock the guests began to arrive and at 8 the wedding ceremony occurred. The bridal party stood beneath an archway which had been decorated with fragrant pink and white sweet peas and gladioli blossoms entwined with smilax and ferns with streamers of pink and white tulle. Each colonade was graced with a lovely vase of gladioli, sweet peas and ferns.

The bride was a picture in a gown of white chiffon cloth and lace with pique edge and carrying a bouquet of sunburst roses and baby breath tied with maline. Her bridesmaid, Miss Anna Holden, wore a dainty gown of pink chiffon cloth trimmed with blue rosebuds. She carried a pretty bouquet of pink roses with fluffy bow of maline. The groom was attended by Earl Folkman. Nearly one hundred guests witnessed the wedding ceremony and were entertained in a delightful manner afterward throughout the home and on the lawn. The rooms were pretty in a decorative scheme of pink and white with vases and jardiniere of summer flowers and ferns artistically placed. Out-of-doors, however, called the majority and on the lawn where the Herman Griffin orchestra gave a splendid program of popular selections, the guests enjoyed dancing. The many colored lights and Japanese lanterns in bright colors lent a pretty glow over the entire assemblage. Pink and white bunting was draped about the porch and across the lawn to the neighboring house. Between the two homes an immense American flag was hung forming an appropriate background for the table where punch, mints and candies were served during the evening by the Misses Johnson and Aileen Smith. Delicious and daintily prepared refreshments were also served on the lawn beneath large Japanese parasols.

An interesting feature was the display of gifts tendered the bride and groom by their many friends. Many lovely pieces of cut glass, china, silverware, etc., were placed in a room of the Harris home and were the cynosure of all eyes.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton are popular in Ogden where the bride has attended school and mingled socially with a large number of entertaining folk. Mr. Hamilton is a member of the Ogden fire department No. 1. They will make their home in Ogden and for the present at 2985 Grant avenue.
